Style YOUR YOUR by Ginny Baldrige

PROJECT THE POWER OF IMAGE TODAY!

Ginny Baldrige, AICI, will teach you to create the perfect look for your career, personality and lifestyle.

You will learn to acquire the Power of Image, developing your personal style consistent with strength of character, dignity and core values.

How do you describe your image? What does your image portray to others? Are you winging it without a plan? Ginny's presentations will replace your doubts with confidence. A powerful business presence states high-level professionalism in attire, posture and conduct. The Power of Image allows you to display leadership in every aspect of your life.

Ginny will engage your group with inspiring anecdotes gained from her (20 years) experiences of working with past clients, relationships with special friends and the accumulated wisdom of mothering 5 children. She uses her southern grace, charm (and drawl) to leave her audiences laughing and...thinking about her message.

Ginny is a sought-after speaker on topics of professional dress, effective business casual dressing, and business etiquette.

SOME OF GINNY'S MOST REQUESTED PRESENTATIONS ARE:

THE POWER OF IMAGE

The Power of Image Seminar is a leadership program –empowering one to experience a personal transformation and a life-long understanding of how style adds to your uniqueness allowing you to impact and influence others.

WARDROBE OF DISTINCTION

What's the secret to creating Your Style?

Developing a wardrobe that reflects your message is a process that takes time and perseverance. You will learn to use a Wardrobe Chart dividing your wardrobe into your lifestyle needs, designing a professional and powerful image with accessories that enhance your style.

SURVIVING BUSINESS CASUAL

This dress category can be confusing and often requires more effort to achieve with confidence. Based on new data confirming poor productivity within casual atmospheres, many companies are returning to the Executive Friday. Understand what is best for your career advancement, and dress professionally even in a Business Casual environment.

“We were privileged to have you present to our group of over 125 people “The Power of Image”. What impressed me most was how you established rapport with the audience quickly and involved them to keep their attention. Your topic was extremely relevant and will greatly assist as our members proceed through the difficult process of career transition, by enhancing their image.”
Robert C. Gergen, Program Chair - BBJ
